

I Hope You See

For my children who did not follow my path,
I pray you wake up,
Avoid the mistakes I made.
Realize it's not all about you, avoid His wrath.

Happiness is not found in things,
Cars, boats, skis, and booze.
Is not what makes you happy,
There are better things to choose.

Sex, music, movies, can draw you down,
Into the dark space,
Where happiness is a state,
That cannot be found.

Stop and think about who you are,
Why you're here.
Think about one another,
It's good to have some fear.

Be better than me.
My love reaches out to each of you,
In different ways.
I hope you can see.
