

Enough Is Enough

Checked my bank balance today,
Not much left, to many things to pay.
The lights, the phone, the TV,
Hands held out to me.

Am I the supplier to these greedy folks?
Do they have the same basic needs?
Where does it stop or begin?
My wallets getting really thin!

The mortgage, the car, the insurance,
Medical bills, nothings left,
How will I get food?
I'm in a terrible mess.

If I don't pay, there'll be extra charges.
Like it's too much already,
Like it's going to help my condition -
To pay more - enough is enough!

Shut the lights off, and the phone,
Let the TV bill run up,
Let the car rust in the driveway,
I'm probably not alone.

There are plenty of us out there,

Who cannot pay.

What will you do in the end,

When no one can play this game?

Your greed will over-take you,

In the end.

When no one will be able to afford

This game, enough is enough!
