

Is There A God

Is there really a God?

Is He joyful, loving, and kind,

Or is He stern, just, and to be feared,

Or is it all just in my mind?

Must I believe in a God?

Is there only one certain line I must follow,

And if I don't, will I suffer eternally?

Is it really that hollow?

God must be above everything.

God cannot have boundaries of any kind;

No rules, laws, nature, can limit God.

But don't we place God in boxes all the time.

If God does not exist, as some contend,

What started this mess, why pretend?

Conditions had to be put in motion,

By something, who started the whole commotion?

Nothing else can explain what was before time.

Only a God who is outside the lines.

Stop being prideful, admit your mistake.

Your not as smart as you think, it's called faith.
